

2008 Heartland Latino Leadership Conference & Expo

Heartland Latino Leadership Conference Reduced Admission Volunteer Program

The Heartland Latino Leadership Conference offers an opportunity for students and individuals in need of financial assistance to attend the conference at a very reduced cost. Individuals interested in applying for this program must meet the following criteria:

- ✓ Must be a student in an educational institution, such as high school, community college, college or university.
- ✓ Must be at least 16 years old by the conference date
- ✓ Must submit the Reduced Admission Volunteer Program application by the October 27, 2008 deadline
- ✓ Submit any additional information requested by the HLLC
- ✓ Must abide by the program volunteer hours requirements*

We have a very limited number of slots available for the Reduced Admission Volunteer Program. Selected participants must contribute Ten Dollars ($10) towards the administrative costs of the program. Participation in the program will be finalized upon notification of the recipients and payment of the $10 fee. Payment can be sent to the HLLC by check or money order to the address below. For questions or if paying by credit card please contact Juan Picon at (402) 990-2791 or at juan.c.picon@wellsfargo.com

*See volunteer requirements

Conference Reduced Admission Program Volunteer Requirements

We are looking for enthusiastic volunteers to help during the 2008 Heartland Latino Leadership Conference. We have a limited number of reduced admission tickets that may be available to students and individuals in need of financial assistance but with a desire to attend the conference. Please apply early to ensure access to those tickets. We will review applications and grant tickets in a first come first serve basis..

Recipients of the Conference Reduced Admission Volunteer Program are required to pay $10 dollars and perform two hours of volunteer work at the conference. Here is a list of tasks that volunteers may be asked to perform:

- General Registration/Bag Distribution
- Exhibit Hall Set Up and Traffic Control
- Sponsor and Exhibitor Registration Set Up and Tear Down
- Special Events Ushers/Tickets
- Workshop Rooms Monitoring
- Greeters/Traffic Control
- Conference Information Booth
- Runners in various areas of the Exhibit Hall and Registration area
- Collecting tickets at special events
- Collecting evaluation forms
- Escorting Speakers
- Keynote Session Mic Control

2008 Heartland Latino Leadership Conference & Expo Reduced Admission Volunteer Program

Please complete the form below to apply for a reduced conference admission ticket. Applications are evaluated on first come first serve basis. Submission deadline is October 27, 2008.

Recipients of the reduced admission program are required to perform 2 hours of volunteer work during the conference and to pay $10 (ten dollars) to cover administration costs.

Please print or type
Personal Information

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____

E-mail: _____ Telephone: _____

Best time to contact: _____

Student Current School Attending / Grade Point Average: _____ / _____

Community Member (Eligible candidates must be active members in the community and in need of financial aid)

Tell us about your community involvement and how this conference will help you to meet your personal or professional goals

I agree to perform 2 hours of volunteer work

Signature

Date

If you are selected, you will be contacted prior to the conference regarding your volunteer assignment. Questions, contact juan.c.picon@wellsfargo.com

Send the completed application to:
2008 Heartland Latino Leadership Conference & Expo
Attn: Reduced Admission Program
4650 S 24th street
Omaha, NE 68107

The Conference Reduced Admission Program is made possible through the generous support of sponsors of the Heartland Latino Leadership Conference & Expo